

Blood dialysis units costing rupees 15 lacks each were distributed among health institutions of Central Province, Eastern Province, Northern Province, North Central Province and Southern Province. Also vans were given for the purpose of transporting kidney patients and staff and to be used in health education programmes related to kidney diseases. The cost of each van is rupees 80 lacks.

