

The Japanese government provided medical equipment worth rupees 609,927,435.00 to the Ministry of Health, on 2nd March at National Blood Transfusion Centre, Narahenpita. These equipment will be distributed among District Hospitals, Base Hospitals, General Hospitals and Teaching Hospitals amounting to a total of 62.

