

The China Ambassador Hon. Yi Xianliang pledged to continue the support of the Chinese government for the development work of the new government , including development of the Health Sector