

This programme was organized by vision 2020 and the Student-Parents Union of British International School, where free spectacles were distributed among less privileged children in Colombo District.