

RESEARCH TRAINING FELLOWSHIP FOR DEVELOPING COUNTRY SCIENTISTS (RTF-DCS):

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR 2015-16

Government of India

Background:

The NAM S&T Centre invites applications from the scientists, technologists and engineers of the developing countries for the award of the fellowships under its Research Training Fellowship for Developing country scientists (RTF-DCS)' scheme for the year 2015-16. The RTF-DCS programme was initiated by the Centre three years ago with full financial support of the government of India, department of science & Technology (DST) and is aimed at capacity building of the developing countries in the fields of science & Technology through the affiliation of their scientists with the Indian scientific and academic Centre's of excellence.

Broad Disciplines: Agricultural Sciences; Biological and Medical Sciences; Chemical Sciences; Physical Sciences and Mathematics; Earth Sciences; Engineering Sciences; Material, Mineral and Metallurgy; and Multi- disciplinary & other Areas.

Eligibility Conditions: Scientists / researchers from any developing country below 40 years of age (as on 1st January 2015) and possessing at least a post Graduate Degree in any Natural Science subject or an equivalent degree in Technology/ Engineering/ Medicine / Allied disciplines.

Submission of Application: Application should be submitted only online by using the following link: <http://goo.gl/FsQ4gB> Deadline of the application: The last date for submission of completed application from along with required enclosures is 15th June 2015.

Selection of Application: Selection will be made by a selection committee and will be based on the quality of the research proposal submitted by the applicant and applicant's academic merit.

Important Notice :

Please note that applications should not be sent to the International Health unit of the Ministry of Health & Indigenous Medicine; Instead applicants should use the aforementioned web based on line application system

Dr D.A.B.Dangalla

Acting Director / International Health

Ministry of Health & Indigenous Medicine