

The Global Executive Masters in Public Administration

An award from the Pentland foundation is available for the potential students for the programme managed jointly by the University College London and the Wagner School at New York University.

The award is aimed at students who are competent in English language and have seven to ten years work experience. The award supports fees, living expenses and travel.

Details can be found in the link <http://ulc.ac.uk/spp/teaching/funding/pent-scholarship>
