

SLJHR

Sri Lanka Journal of Health Research

Sri Lanka Journal of Health Research (SLJHR) is the official journal of the Ministry of Health. It is available in Sri Lanka Journals Online (SLJOL) at: <https://sljhr.sljol.info/>. The SLJHR is a peer-reviewed, biannually published scholarly journal serving the health professionals and academics of Sri Lanka to publish their research works and innovations. Steps are being taken to upgrade the SLJHR to an indexed journal in the future.

Call for Papers (Deadline extended)

Sri Lanka Journal of Health Research invites professionals to submit to be published in the SLJHR in the fields of Medicine, Nursing, Allied Health Sciences, Indigenous Health, and health related fields.
