Subject: International Professional Vacancies

Dear Sir or Madam,

We would like to share with you the link of vacancies currently published on the WHO website. The aim is to increase the diversity of our international staff. We would like to invite you to go to our website <https://tl-ex.vcdp.w> choose vacancies according to your interest.

You can sort vacancies by duty stations, job field & function, job type & employee status. In order to do so, please go to the options on the left side of the vacancies based on your criteria.

We would very much appreciate if you could disseminate this link with your colleagues. WHO is committed to improving its gender balance, particularly in positions where women are under-represented. We would therefore appreciate any support from you in targeting qualified women for these positions.

Should you have any queries or comments on our vacancy mailing list, please contact Griss (e-mail: grissc@who.int).

With our thanks,

The Human Resources Management Department
World Health Organization

Dear Sir or Madam,

We would like to share with you the link of vacancies currently published on the website of the World Health Organization. The aim is to increase the diversity of our internationally recruited staff in addition to giving your nationals information about vacant positions at WHO.

We would like to invite you to go to our website <https://tl-ex.vcdp.who.int/careersection/ex/jobsearch.ftl> and choose vacancies according to your interest.

You can sort vacancies by duty stations, job field & function, job type, job schedule (full-time or part-time) and employee status. In order to do so, please go to the options on the left hand side of the page and filter the vacancies based on your criteria.

We would very much appreciate if you could disseminate this link widely within your national networks. WHO is committed to improving its gender balance, particularly in positions at the senior levels of the Organization, and we would therefore appreciate any support from you in targeting qualified female candidates.

Should you have any queries or comments on our vacancy mailing list, please contact our focal point Ms Cornelia Griss (e-mail: grissc@who.int).

With our thanks,

The Human Resources Management Department
 World Health Organization
