Co-Sponsored Fellowships Programme 2026-2027

ANNOUNCEMENT LETTER

Sir/Madam,

On behalf of the Director-General, I am pleased to inform you that the Government of the People's Republic of China and UNESCO will co-sponsor a total number of seventy-five (75) fellowships in various fields of study for the academic year 2026-2027. Among these fellowships, twenty-seven (27) vacancies will be open for new recruitment to candidates from 135 developing Member States in Africa, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, Europe and Arab region. Please see the list of Member States invited to submit candidatures in the Annex I of the enclosed Application Guidelines.

Available at numerous Chinese universities, these fellowships are intended for the students and researchers who wish to pursue postgraduate degree studies or undertake one-year visiting scholar programmes in China. The duration and criteria vary, depending on the type of study programme selected. The enclosed Application Guidelines provides detailed information regarding the eligibility requirements and submission procedures.

Each invited Member State can submit two (2) candidatures at the maximum, and one of them should be woman. Candidatures should be submitted as prescribed in the Application Guidelines, to allow the authorities of the donor government to select the most qualified candidates.

Given the high priority that UNESCO places on Gender Equality, Africa and SIDS, women candidates and candidates from Africa and SIDS are strongly encouraged to apply.

We would be most grateful if you could submit the candidatures, with letters of nomination and the application documents of the nominated candidates by e-mail to thegreatwall@unesco.org by 10 February 2026 at the latest.

Should you need further information, please contact the National Commission and Fellowships Unit by e-mail at the address mentioned above.

1. Introduction

With a view to promoting the human resource development and capacity building of developing countries and to enhancing international exchanges in the field of education, culture, communication, science and technology and the friendship among peoples of the world, the Government of the People's Republic of China and UNESCO will co-sponsor a total number of seventy-five (75) fellowships in various fields of study at undergraduate and postgraduate levels during the academic year 2026-2027. Among these fellowships, twenty-seven (27) vacancies will be open for new recruitment to candidates from 135 developing Member States in Africa, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, Europe and Arab region.

Tenable at a selected number of Chinese universities, these fellowships are intended for students and researchers who plan to pursue degree study at the postgraduate level, or undertake individual research with periodic guidance from the assigned supervisors in China. A candidate may apply for either a one-year Visiting Scholar Programme (as General or Senior scholar), or a Master's or Doctoral degree programme with the duration of study ranging from 2 to 5 years. Subject to the availability of study programmes at the selected universities, the study programmes will be taught in English or Chinese. Candidates applying for the Chinese-taught programmes should have acquired a certain level of Chinese proficiency before undertaking research or studying in their fields of interest.

Fellowship recipients will be enrolled full-time in the academic programmes to which they are admitted in the Chinese universities within the framework of the Programme. Extension or repeated award of fellowships is not permitted under the same UNESCO fellowships programme.

Given the high priority that UNESCO places on Gender Equality, Africa and SIDS, female candidates and candidates from Africa and SIDS, especially those from the least developed countries are strongly encouraged to apply.
