Call for Nominations: GRO GEST 2027 – Fully Funded Postgraduate Programme in Iceland

We are pleased to inform you that the International Centre for Capacity Development, operating under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Government of Iceland, has invited nominations for the five-month, full-time Postgraduate Diploma Programme on GRO Gender Equality Studies and Training (GEST) – 2027 Cohort, hosted by the University of Iceland.

02. The programme is designed for junior professionals and young researchers engaged in gender equality related work in policy, practice, or research. It combines advanced academic instruction with applied project or research components. Participants may pursue one of the following admission tracks:

- Project Track - for candidates developing practice-oriented gender equality projects to be implemented in their home country with formal institutional endorsement.
- Research Track - for candidates undertaking academic research intended for publication in peer-reviewed journals.

03. If this programme aligns with the mandate and the functions of your Ministry or any affiliated institutions under its purview, it presents a valuable opportunity to enhance institutional capacity. Participation would contribute significantly to the professional development of relevant officers.

04. In this regard, you are kindly requested to circulate this information among prospective candidates within your Ministry/Organization and its affiliated institutions, and to encourage eligible officials to submit applications in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the attached Information Booklet. Applicants are advised to carefully review the eligibility criteria and related information prior to submission. Comprehensive details and access to the online application form are available at:

05. We would appreciate it if arrangements could be made to submit nominations online on or before 10 March 2026, and to forward the following documents to this Department thereafter:

- Nomination letter from the Line Ministry
- Proof of online application submission
- Duly completed ERD Form (available at www.erd.gov.lk)

06. Please note that shortlisted nominees will be invited to submit a full individual application. Accordingly, this Department should be informed of online submission details for any further facilitation required. Selection letters for domestic administrative purposes will be issued only in respect of applications received by this Department on or before the stipulated deadline.

07. Further, it has come to our attention that there has been a recent trend of candidates withdrawing their candidatures for various reasons after being selected for foreign training courses. While these opportunities are secured for the benefit of the country, such withdrawals not only tarnish the country's image but also result in the loss of valuable training slots allocated to us. Moreover, this practice is unfair to other deserving candidates who were not selected. In order to minimize such inconveniences, we kindly request both the candidates and the Ministry/organization to ensure that applications are submitted with a firm commitment. Once selected for the scholarship program, candidates are expected to honor their acceptance and not withdraw their candidature except under circumstances that are exceptionally unexpected and unavoidable.

08. We warmly encourage all suitably qualified officials to consider availing themselves of this exceptional opportunity, which not only allows for the enhancement of academic and professional competencies but also provides invaluable international exposure, networking opportunities, and practical experience in the field of gender equality.

09. Your kind cooperation and timely attention to this matter would be highly appreciated.

Subject: Call for Nominations: GRÓ GEST 2027 - Fully Funded Postgraduate Programme in Iceland

To: Gender Equality Studies and Training Programme - HI <gest@hi.is>

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the open call for nominations for the GRÓ Gender Equality Studies and Training (GEST) Programme, 2027 cohort, hosted by the University of Iceland.

GRÓ GEST is a 5-month, full-time postgraduate diploma programme (30 ECTS) running from January to May 2027, designed for junior professionals and young researchers working to advance gender equality in policy, practice, or research.

We invite organisations to nominate highly qualified candidates who meet the programme's eligibility criteria and whose participation is expected to have clear post-programme impact.

About the programme

The GRÓ GEST programme combines advanced academic training with applied project or research work. Fellows follow one of two admissions tracks:

- Project Track – for candidates developing applied, practice-oriented gender equality projects that will be implemented in their home country with formal backing from their organisation
- Research Track – for candidates undertaking rigorous academic research aimed at publication in peer-reviewed journals

Eligibility (all nominees must meet these requirements)Nominees must:

- Hold at least one university degree (BA/BS/BEd or equivalent)
- Have a minimum of two years of professional experience relevant to gender equality
- Be fluent in spoken and written English
- Be junior professionals or young researchers (priority given to candidates under 35)
- Demonstrate leadership potential and commitment to advancing gender equality
- Be nationals and residents of low- or middle-income countries, or conflict/post-conflict societies
(Candidates who are nationals or residents of countries not on the OECD DAC list are not eligible)

Priority is given to nominations from Africa, South Asia, and the Middle East, in line with GRÓ's strategic priorities.

Scholarship coverage

Admitted fellows receive a full scholarship, covering:

- International travel and visa costs
- Accommodation on campus in Reykjavík
- Daily stipend
- Tuition and learning materials

Nomination process and deadline

- Organisations submit nominations during the open call period
- Qualified nominees are subsequently invited to submit a full individual application
- Nomination deadline: 10 March 2026

We strongly encourage nominating organisations to carefully review the full admissions criteria before submitting a nomination. Full Information and access to the nomination form are available here:
<https://www.grocentre.is/gest/capacity-development-gest/postgraduate-diploma-programme-1/admission>

Please feel free to circulate this call within your networks.

With best regards,
