Public opinion for draft 'National Policy on Oral Health 2024-2030'

General public, communities and organizations are invited to submit their comments and proposals regarding the draft 'National Policy on Oral Health 2024-2030'.

Ministry of Health in consultation with oral health professionals, medical administrators, academia, professional colleges and associations including Sri Lanka Dental Association, private sector and relevant government and non-governmental organizations, has drafted this policy, which is coherent with government policies and National Health Policy. This policy is also aligned with global trends on oral health outlined by the World Health Organization.

The draft policy document can be accessed from the Ministry of Health website.
